DETAILED ACTION

1. This is in response to the Amendment and Remarks filed on 01/09/2008. Claims 1, 3-46 are presented for examination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1, 3-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Barrera, US pat. No.6,567,800 in view of Cover et al., US pat. No.6,961,905.

As to claim 1, Barrera discloses a data processing apparatus comprising:

means for initiating saving of a content of an Internet page displayed by the browser (see abstract, fig.5, col.3 line 50 to col.4 line 15);

means for acquiring the content or the URL of the currently displayed page from the browser and means for indexing, said means for indexing assigning a predetermined index to data acquired by said means for acquiring (see col.4 line 16 to col.5 line 16); and means for data saving the acquired data with the assigned index in a predetermined storage unit upon initiation of saving through said means for initiating (see fig.6, col.5 lines 17-65).

Barrera does not specifically disclose in response to one click of a single button displayed on a browser. Cover discloses in response to one click of a single button displayed on a browser (users click a selection field on the browser to select a web page/data, see fig.5, abstract, col.6 line 5 to col.7 line 50). It would have been obvious to one of the ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to implement Cover's teachings into the computer system of Barrera to process data information because it would have enabled users to modify images/data and to save back to the original location of the web page in a communication network (see Cover's col.7 lines 26-62).

As to claim 3, Barrera discloses means for acquiring obtains the URL of the currently displayed page and said means for indexing assigns the URL or a selected part thereof to the data as the predetermined index (see col.4 lines 4-65).

As to claim 4, Barrera discloses means for acquiring obtains one of either a keyword or a title embedded in a page displayed in said browser, said means for indexing assigning a predetermined index to the keyword or the title to the data as the predetermined index (see fig.2, col.4 line 55 to col.5 line 46).

As to claim 5, Barrera discloses means for displaying one of either the keyword or the title acquired by said means for acquiring (see col.4 lines 4-65).

Art Unit: 2151

As to claim 6, Barrera discloses the index includes a time when the data is saved (see fig.7, col.4 lines 4-65 and col.5 lines 2-65).

As to claim 7, Barrera discloses means for sorting indices of the data in the storage unit and means for displaying a result of the sorting by said means for sorting (see fig.7, col.4 lines 4-65 and col.5 lines 2-65).

As to claims 8 and 9, Barrera discloses designating an index from the indices displayed on said means for displaying, means for initiating deletion of a selected index and means for deleting the selected index, said deleting based on an instruction from said means for initiating deletion (see fig.7, col.4 lines 4-65 and col.5 lines 2-65).

As to claim 10, Barrera discloses said data to which the selected index is assigned is maintained in the predetermined storage unit (see fig.7, col.4 lines 4-65 and col.5 lines 2-65).

As to claim 11, Barrera discloses said data to which the selected index is assigned is removed from the predetermined storage unit (see fig.7, col.4 lines 4-65 and col.5 lines 2-65).

Art Unit: 2151

As to claim 12, Barrera discloses said means for initiating deletion selects an instruction from a menu displayed, said selection in response to a user-action (see fig.7, col.4 lines 4-65 and col.5 lines 2-65).

As to claims 13 and 14, Barrera discloses said user action is a click of mouse button, said apparatus being capable of recognizing said click and displaying a URL of the data to which the selected index is assigned (see fig.7, col.4 lines 4-65 and col.5 lines 2-65).

As to claims 15 and 16, Barrera discloses informing whether the content of the page to which the selected index is assigned has been saved and providing information regarding time of saving content (see fig.7, col.4 lines 4-65 and col.5 lines 2-65).

As to claims 17 and 18, Barrera discloses means for indexing assigns said index automatically and a means for retrieving data from said a predetermined storage unit (see fig.7, col.4 lines 4-65 and col.5 lines 2-65).

As to claims 19-20, Barrera discloses wherein indices of said retrieved data are displayed to a user in accordance with the time of creation of said data associated with said indices and displayed to a user in accordance with organization name associated with data (see fig.7, col.4 lines 4-65 and col.5 lines 2-65).

As to claims 21-22, Barrera discloses indices of said retrieved data are displayed to a user in accordance with keywords of said data and in a sorted order of domain names of Internet locations where said data was initially obtained (see fig.7, col.4 lines 4-65 and col.5 lines 2-65).

As to claim 23, Barrera discloses selecting an index to retrieve stored data causes said data to be displayed in a browser window actively being used (see fig.7, col.4 lines 4-65 and col.5 lines 2-65).

As to claim 24, Barrera discloses a method for processing data in response to a user, comprising:

- initiating saving a content of an Internet page displayed by a browser and acquiring the content or URL information of the currently displayed page from the browser (see abstract, fig.5, col.3 line 50 to col.4 line 15);

- assigning a predetermined index to data acquired by said means for acquiring and saving acquired data with the assigned index (URL index) in a predetermined storage unit upon initiating of the content (see fig.7, col.4 lines 4-65 and col.5 lines 2-65).

Barrera does not specifically disclose in response to one click of a single button displayed on a browser. Cover discloses in response to one click of a single button displayed on a browser (users click a selection field on the browser to select a web page/data, see fig.5, abstract, col.6 line 5 to col.7 line 50). It would have been obvious to one of the ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to implement Cover's teachings into the computer system of Barrera to process data information because it would have enabled users to modify images/data and to save back to the original location of the web page in a communication network (see Cover's col.7 lines 26-62).

As to claim 25, Barrera discloses retrieving an instruction for activating saving of the content of the currently displayed page (in fig.2, Yahoo! displaying the page shown in to the user, see fig.2, col.1 lines 26-56 and col.4 lines 16-46).

Claims 26-46 are rejected for the same reasons set forth in claims 3-23 respectively.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 3-46 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
